Welcome.

to SPORTCAMPUS SAAR.

In the heart of Saarbrücken's city forest lies a place where everything comes together: training, sleeping, eating, networking, relaxing, and thinking ahead. SPORTCAMPUS SAAR is more than just a training location—it is a home for athletes from all over the world. A place with short distances, modern infrastructure, top-notch support, and genuine team spirit. A place where you will find everything you need: Olympic-level sports facilities, modern accommodation, medical care, catering, and conference rooms—all on a 9-hectare site. Whether it's a training camp, competition preparation, or seminar: here, not only performance grows, but community grows too.

Training meets team spirit.

Performance meets quality of life.

Sport is more than just exercise.

SPORTCAMPUS SAAR

Everything in one place

- 9 hectares of land—training tracks and MTB trails right on your doorstep
- Train, live, eat, learn, network, relax—all in one place.
- Home to numerous professional associations, including the Saarland Football Association, the Rhineland-Palatinate/Saarland Olympic Training Center, and the BSA Academy.

One Place. All Possibilities.

Fascination gets us moving. Motivation gives us goals and direction. Inspiration opens up new paths. At SPORTCAMPUS SAAR, we combine all of this into a place where people can discover and develop their potential. It's not just about athletic performance, but also about personal development, diversity, and growing together through challenges. Our vision is to enable individual success—through modern training and educational opportunities, through community, and through a firm belief in what each individual is capable of.

Medical care. Personal support.

Optimal regeneration.

At SPORTCAMPUS SAAR, the focus is not only on athletic performance, but also on providing comprehensive support for each individual. This is ensured by specialized partners directly on site.

The Institute for Sports and Preventive Medicine, headed by Prof. Tim Meyer, MD, former team doctor for the German national soccer team, offers sports medicine diagnostics, training management, and individualized care at the highest level. Right next door, the sportsmed saar team supports athletes with targeted physiotherapy, rehabilitation programs, and performance-oriented training. The practice of Oliver Muelbredt and Dirk Mund specializes in the needs of top-level sports—and is always available to answer questions.

Additional offers for recreation and relaxation:

- Recovery rooms with cold, heat, and massage therapy
- Sauna and relaxation areas for active recovery
- Short distances—just a few steps from the training hall to recovery

External cooperation partners (reachable in 15 minutes):

- Other specialist practices focusing on orthopedics, sports medicine, and prevention

A stage for movement. A space for encounters.

Competitions. Major events. Conferences. Seminars.

SPORTCAMPUS SAAR is more than just a training center—it is also a lively event venue. Whether it's top athletic performances or intellectual exchange, this is where people come together to grow, compete, and share knowledge. The campus regularly serves as a stage for national and international sporting events. Numerous top teams have their home advantage here, such as the Triathlon Hylo Team Saar, the badminton club 1. BC Bischmisheim, and the SSG Saar Max-Ritter swimming club.

These include, among others:

- The Saar Sports Day with thousands of visitors,
- exciting soccer tournaments and international volleyball matches,
- the 2nd Bundesliga women's volleyball team (TV Holz),
- the table tennis Champions League of 1. FC Saarbrücken TT,
- and the German Triathlon Championships.

Highlights of the eight rooms:

- Conference room 20—ideal for lectures and panel discussions
- Conference room 40/41—versatile use for seminars, meetings, courses

Conferences & seminars.

In addition to sports, SPORTCAMPUS SAAR also offers space for creativity: eight modern conference rooms equipped with professional technology provide the perfect setting for seminars, workshops, and conferences. All rooms are equipped with modern conference technology (projectors, Wi-Fi, flipcharts, video, etc.) and can accommodate a wide variety of formats.

Whether you are planning a small group or a larger event, flexible room concepts and individual support make all kinds of formats possible. We are happy to assist you in selecting the right room and, if desired, plan a complementary supporting program—with a sporting touch, of course.

Booking and advice:

Conference rooms and sports facilities can be easily requested using the form.

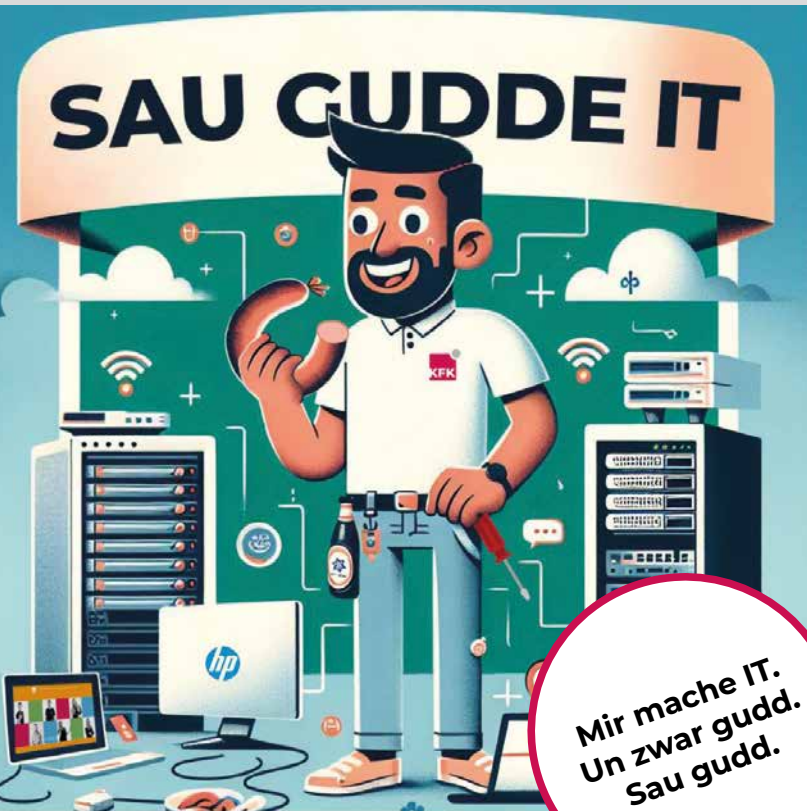

Simply fill it out and send it to: sportcampus@lsvs.de.
